

QUEST Seminar on Responsible Research

Program – Summer Semester 2022

Always at 5:00 pm, CET

- May 10th QUEST: who we are and how we support responsible research
Daniel Strech – Deputy Director QUEST Center, and Evgeny Bobrov – Project Team Leader Open Data and Research Data Management
QUEST Center
- May 24th 'The winner's curse' or why the reproducibility crisis and publication bias towards positive findings create a vastly distorted picture
Matthias von Herrath – Professor at the Center for Autoimmunity and Inflammation, La Jolla Institute for Immunology
- June 7th PREMIER: a tool for structured quality assurance measures in academic preclinical biomedical research
Claudia Kurreck – Leader Quality Management, Experimental Neurology, Charité
- June 21st Ten simple rules for good research practice
Leonhard Held – Head of the Biostatistics Department and Director of the Center for Reproducible Science at the University of Zurich
- July 5th The Preclinical Research Unit: a hub to provide guidance in preclinical research towards robust evidence and clinical translation
Natascha Drude – Research fellow, Coordinator Preclinical Research Unit, QUEST Center

The Seminar is run as virtual event, via Teams.
To get the login information, please or contact us at quest-seminar@charite.de

Host: Berlin Institute of Health at Charité
Local organization: BIH QUEST Center for Responsible Research
<https://www.bihealth.org/en/translation/innovation-enabler/quest-center>
Scientific coordination: Lorena Martinez Gamboa and Meggie Danziger